

MURRAY STATE UNIVERSITY

Murray State's Digital Commons

Weekly Kentucky New Era

Newspapers

5-3-1889

Weekly Kentucky New Era, May 3, 1889

Weekly Kentucky New Era

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/kynew>

Recommended Citation

Weekly Kentucky New Era, "Weekly Kentucky New Era, May 3, 1889" (1889). Weekly Kentucky New Era. 188.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/kynew/188>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Weekly Kentucky New Era by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

Friday May 3, 1889.

Home and Society.

J. R. Gaines, of Montgomery, was in the city today.

Henry Frankel is spending the week in Nashville.

Robt. Boyd, of Wallonia, was in town Wednesday.

Mr. W. Moore, of Longview, was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Annie Smith is the guest of friends at Fairview.

Mr. James Givens, of Pembroke, was in town today.

Mr. Ed. Summers, of Cadiz, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. H. H. Bryant, of Gray, Ky., is visiting in the city.

Flem Clardy, of Newstead, was in the city this morning.

Mr. N. Payne, of Salubria, spent Wednesday in the city.

Mr. Jo Williams, of Pembroke, was in the city Wednesday.

Will and John Reed, of Bellevue, were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. A. W. Pyles, of this city, is visiting friends at Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jones, of Beverly, were in the city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, of Church Hill, were in town Wednesday.

Mr. J. C. Tate, of Clarksville, is visiting Miss Mary McPherson.

Mr. James Radford, of Memphis, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mrs. Lou Wallis, of Pembroke, visited friends in the city last week.

Miss Mary Warfield has returned from a visit to friends at Elkton.

Mrs. F. S. Beaumont, of Clarksville, was shopping in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Alex. Warfield, of Clarksville, is visiting the family of her father, Dr. Wood.

W. S. Ladd, a leading young farmer of Trigg county, was in the city Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson, of Princeton, are visiting the family of Mr. Clarence Anderson.

Mr. J. F. Bell and daughters, Alice and Sallie, of Clarksville, visited relatives in the city this week.

Misses Mattie Chiles and Lizzie Rutherford, of Trenton, have been the guests of Mrs. George W. Graves.

Mrs. Betty Penick and daughter, Miss Bessie, and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, of Pembroke, were in the city Tuesday.

Miss Lulu Ferguson, who has been on a three-week visit to relatives and friends at Paducah, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Mattie Rowe, of Greenville, Ky., accompanied by her little daughter, Bessie, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Dodd.

Miss Mattie Craven, of Bellevue, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Craven, of this city, returned home Monday evening.

W. H. Edgins and wife and Mrs. Noe Dills, from near Fairview, are spending several days in town as guests of their sister, Mrs. P. A. Cushman.

Mrs. J. K. Kent, accompanied by her children, leaves in a few days for Europe, where she will visit relatives in Germany. They will remain abroad until October.

Return Visit.

Dr. G. Goldstein has been requested by a number of persons to make another visit and has consented to be in the city on the first of June and will remain one day.

The members of the Democratic county committee are requested to meet at the court house in Hopkinsville at 8 p. m. on Monday, May 31. Important business will be transacted.

S. G. Beckman, Chairman.

The proposition to compromise the balance of Muhlenberg's debt, which was to be submitted Monday was withdrawn, says the Echo. The reason assigned was the withdrawal of the support of a number of citizens. Their withdrawal was due, we understand, to a fear of subjecting themselves to liability to Judge Brown, of Memphis, for his conditional fee of $25,000.

A Good Man.

Cadiz Telephone: Rev. Daniel Hanbury, who was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, departed this life last Monday after a long illness. Rev. Hanbury was an acceptable minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, being greatly beloved by those for whom he ministered. He was a devoted husband and a devoted father. He was a brother of Messrs. Thomas and John Hanbury, of Christian county, and of Mr. Joseph Hanbury, of this county, besides being the father of several children who will deeply mourn his loss.

A Big Contract.

Henderson Journal: Peter Manion, of this city, who has been engaged for the L. & N. railroad at Howell and on the dummy line from Newburg to Evansville, completed his work Tuesday and has made another contract with a road of some magnitude. He has been contracted to replace all the trestle work on the St. Louis and Henderson division of the road with embankments. There will be some very large fills on these two divisions, one at Springfield containing 50,000 yards, and one at Crutcher, Ky., containing 40,000 yards. Mr. Manion is now transferring his teams and implements from Howell and will commence on the work Monday.

This Address.

Dr. Wilson, the man who was arrested and held here by Chief Campbell Saturday, was released to Mr. C. C. Clark, chief of police, at Newburg, at whose instance he was arrested, on Saturday night. Sunday morning the Bowling Green officer left with his prisoner for that city where he is to answer the grave charge of abducting a young woman named Emma Taylor. It turns out now that he registered here under an assumed name and that his real name is Charles Williams. This coupled with several other very suspicious incidents go far to show that there is more in the charge than he was willing to admit. Some very sensational developments are expected when the case is called.

Vencil Focusings.

Jailor Long complains of dull business. The sale throughout was active.

Dr. Clardy will organize a Grange in Hopkins county May 15th.

Mr. Jno. S. Malone, a prominent citizen of Cadiz, is dead.

Every quarter section of land in Oklahoma has been taken up.

About thirty horses are comfortably quartered at the driving park.

There is complaint in Henderson county of a scarcity of tobacco plants.

Mr. Cushman's residence on South Main Street is rapidly nearing completion.

A little daughter of Jack Caldwell, of Henderson, was bitten by a mad dog Friday.

Wednesday, July 17th, is a red letter day in St. Louis. She will hang five murderers at that time.

Tuesday, near Russellville, Dr. Holland, in a quarrel, shot and killed Eugene Lyne, colored. He has been jailed.

There will be an election on the first Saturday in May to fill two vacancies in the board of trustees of the city schools.

The Kentucky Pharmaceutical Society will convene at Crab Orchard Springs May 15th.

T. L. Smith's new cottage on East Seventh Street is completed and ready for occupancy.

Squire Samuel Larkins, of Trigg, has announced as a candidate for representative.

Mr. Jo. Buckner will remove his family to the country lately reached by Mr. F. L. Waller in a few days.

John D. Shaw, of Cadiz, has been appointed as the clerk of the court of appeals.

The Wheeler of Caldwell county met in convention at Princeton Tuesday. There were about twenty delegates represented.

Mr. Hunter Wood has been appointed as one of the commissioners of the asylum at this place, vice S. E. Trice, resigned.

Rev. S. F. Gibb will preach at the Universalist church next Sunday morning and night at the usual hours. Everybody is cordially invited.

Dr. Cohen, the oculist, has located here permanently and has secured a residence on Campbell street to which he will remove his family at an early date.

The court of Common Pleas that convenes next week, there will be 12 judges for divorce trials, whereas only four are of white people. There are 56 other cases filed for trial.

Mr. B. F. Wood, a Pembroke merchant, made an assignment last week for the benefit of his creditors. His assets are about $2,000 while his liabilities will hardly reach that amount.

The Hospital College of Medicine, Louisville, caught fire yesterday morning but was only damaged to the extent of $1,500. A lot of skeletons and two-headed baby are among the losses.

Mr. Thos. Ryan, living six miles north of the city, who has been sick for some months, is said to be somewhat improved at present, much to the gratification of his friends and neighbors.

Dr. James Rodman has located his office over the Bank of Hopkinsville adjoining Dr. Frank Smith's. Any one who could say a word in favor of Rodman's skill as a physician would be superfluous.

Our host of the Phoenix, Mr. W. T. Cooper, is having electric bells placed in every room of the building, connecting with the main office. This is an improvement which the traveling public will appreciate.

Paducah Standard: The little village of Water Valley, Graves county, had an exciting local election a few days ago. For mayor two brothers were pitted against each other, and the Republican was elected after an exciting contest.

Rev. D. S. Campbell, of Russellville, who is a prominent elder of the Princeton District, filled the pulpit at the Methodist church of this city, last evening, delivering a very able sermon to a large and appreciative audience.

Lee Johnson, the child of genius and misfortune, met with another painful accident Sunday night. While driving on the Fairview pike his horse took fright and ran away overturning Mr. Johnson and dislocating his right shoulder.

A fine mule belonging to Mr. Carter was killed by the early south wind on Monday morning, about a point about two miles north of this city. The railroad company has already paid $400 for stock killed within fifty feet of this same spot.

At the spring meeting in Louisville an attempt will be made to lower the record for a mile made over the track there by Ten Broeck. This attempt will be made by Mr. T. B. Harper, who owned Ten Broeck, and the thoroughbred selected is the mare Valuable.

The jury in the case of Withers & Adams against the L. & N. Railroad Company returned a verdict of $40 in favor of Withers and $20 in favor of Adams. The plaintiffs were damaged to this extent by the unnecessary delay of cattle shipped by their last September.

The Western Union Telegraph company has compromised the suit brought against them by the Eugene Mills by paying the full amount asked for damages. The suit was for an action against the company for the alleged carelessness of the agents by which the plaintiff was damaged in the amount sued for.

Mr. Jno. Fruit, of north Christian, a brother of Capt. Sam. Fruit, died at his home Friday. He left a wife and six children. He was a man well thought of by those who knew him for his many good qualities. The sympathy of the people is given his family for their great loss.

Mr. Jas. Breathitt, Jr., of this city, has received his commission as railway mail clerk and his run will be between Evansville and Providence. He is an industrious and worthy young man and his application was signed by the leading citizens of Hopkinsville regardless of party.

The membership of the Latham Light Guards is steadily increasing and the names of the very best young men of the city are being added to the roster. It is the intention of the boys to organize thoroughly in time for the summer encampment at Crab Orchard Springs. Lieut. Henry H. Clark is notified by the Adjutant General that new uniforms and new equipments throughout will be forwarded as soon as the organization is perfected.

We are informed that Col. T. J. Morrow has a pair of dogs which can catch more fish in a given time than Mat Starling and Gene Wood. Col. A. H. Clark is authority for the statement that they recently caught 314 pounds of suckers in the river near Col. Morrow's residence. They are the best fish in the charge and he was willing to admit. Some very sensational developments are expected when the case is called.

AT THE EXCHANGE.

Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.

Quite a number of gentlemen from this city are attending the Nashville races.

For Sale—An elegant Upright Rosewood Piano—cheap. Apply at this office.

There were seventy-two arrests made by the police force during the month of April.

Prof. C. P. Dietrich has purchased the handsome residence of F. Dryer on Walnut street opposite Mr. Eugene Wood and will remove his family thither in a short time.

One of the members of the Louisville Legion, G. W. Farrow, was en route to New York, had his arm badly bruised by striking a bridge in an attempt to catch his cap which blew out of the car window that amputation was necessary.

Rev. H. A. McDonald desires us to say that the Christian church at Crofton will not be dedicated until May 3d. The New Era is informed by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gant, that the dedication would take place on next Sunday.

John Savage has secured a position in the service of the Express company and is now running between Lexington and Nashville. He is an energetic and faithful young man and will make the company a good servant.

The prospects for the success of the spring meeting are constantly growing and the secretary and officers of the association are confidently expecting a large attendance. The horses will begin to arrive about the middle of next month.

N. Harrell, residing near Lafayette, had a black mare-mule, bridle and saddle stolen from his stable several nights since, and has offered a reward of $25 for the return of the animal. The state also offers a reward of $50 for the arrest of an horse thief.

The theatrical season closed on Saturday night with the performance of Gorton's minstrel. The management has already opened the books for the season of 89-90 and has booked several very strong attractions including popular Baker and other Hopkinsville favorites.

The tobacco crop will be a failure in Bourbon and Robertson counties, says a correspondent. Owing to the drought the plants have all withered. Planters who expected to have plants enough to set out fifty acres can not set one acre, and are planting their tobacco land in corn.

The Republican county committee will meet in this city on next Monday, May 6th, at one o'clock, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent Christian county in the convention called at Louisville to nominate a candidate for state treasurer.

Messrs. Bonte and Wright have just completed for Cooper & Callahan, the enterprising young business men, one of the finest double vehicles that has ever been offered to the public in the lively business city of Hopkinsville. It will be built at a great expense, but will not doubt be a paying investment.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Kraver & Harris in this issue. They carry the largest stock of whiskey, wines and liquors, of any house in this section of the state. And all orders will receive prompt attention. You can rely on receiving just what you order, give them a trial.

Clarksville Democrat: Austin Peay, who has been gathering statistics for the Kentucky agricultural department, takes the acreage of twelve farmers in this county. He reports the average of 85 per cent, an increase in corn of 35 per cent, and an increase in oats of 150 per cent.

Dr. Chas. W. Taylor, of Louisville, has created something of a sensation in Masonic circles by resigning his position as commander in chief of Veritas Consistory of the Central Masonry. This is taken by the regular Masons to mean the downfall of that body in Kentucky. Its organization has been the occasion of much discussion.

A very strong case has been made out against Chas. Williams arrested in this city a few days ago on the charge of abducting a young lady of Bowling Green. According to the young lady's statement he is a lecher and a thief, and she is now in the hands of the law. He is now in the hands of the law. He is now in the hands of the law.

Two young colored men from the Pembroke vicinity walked into the clerk's office this morning and one of them purchased a license to marry. When the necessary papers had been drawn up, signed and delivered to the party there was a whispered consultation between the two, then the other walked up to the clerk's desk and informed Major Breathitt that he wanted a "pair of license."

The major replied that he was just out, but a friend had just bought the last "pair" in the house but that a new supply would arrive Monday. The poor fellow turned off with a countenance the picture of sorrow thinking that his matrimonial hopes were blasted. He was called back, however, and a "pair" was issued to him and he went on his way rejoicing.

The annual fry of the fishing club has been postponed. Those who left this Monday evening to spend the night with friends in the country in order to get an early start Tuesday morning to the fishing grounds were somewhat disappointed on awakening to find the rain pouring in torrents. It stopped raining about 9:30, and a few raindrops followed. The party was out, one party to Stegar's mill, the other to Sinking Fork. The ladies, of course, were compelled to remain indoors. What the Stegar's mill party caught, has not been learned, but it is believed that a few colds will about cover the catch. The other party consisting of eight persons, caught about fifteen pounds of fish, three trout, two snakes, a terrapin, three coon and five cats. Six men got wet and the other two got muddy. The postponed fry will be held in about two weeks.

There was a panic on the streets Saturday morning occasioned by a runaway. The boy belonging to Will Withers became frightened and, breaking away from his father, ran down the street, dragging a buggy behind him. Just opposite Galbreath's he slipped and fell the buggy, but recovering himself before he could be caught, continued his wild career up Main street.

The buggy struck Mr. Clarence Anderson's carriage with terrible force but fortunately no damage was done to his vehicle. The runaway then struck the frightened animal turned and dashed toward the river, overturning the buggy and bending the river axle. Just below the rock spring he went headlong into the river and climbed up the opposite bank where he was caught by a bold colored man who jumped into the water and waded to him. Strange to say damage was done to the buggy except the bending of the axle. The fright was occasioned, by water thrown upon him from the street, the driver of which was careless.

A very interesting revival has been in progress at the Baptist church near Cadiz during the past two weeks. Many additions have been made to the society and a report of Rev. G. H. Simmons, of Louisville, the baptizing will take place Saturday afternoon in the pool near the river. Mr. Simmons will preach his farewell sermon and return to Louisville.

Frank Nicholson, who disappeared from Evansville two days ago, has been accounted for. His body was found in the river some distance below there last Saturday.

The Madisonville Hustler says that the beer business has opened up at that town, sixteen kegs being put out the train Saturday night.

Madisonville is a little pond of her literary talent. She has two authors, Emma, Mrs. J. T. Ruby and Miss Emma Prewitt.

Miss Lulu Hart is recovering from a severe relapse of typhoid fever.

A LONG CONTINUED CASE FINALLY DISPOSED OF.

In late Henderson circuit court Thursday afternoon judgment was entered in the case of Allen Gilmore's estate against Robert Kerr for $200,000. The case has been in the Henderson courts for several years, and grew out of the connection of Allen Gilmore, deceased, with the tobacco firm of Hugh Kerr & Co., of Louisville, in the tobacco business. The interest on the amount of the judgment will, if it stands, raise the judgment to nearly $300,000. The judgment is the largest ever rendered in Southern Kentucky. The original suit on which the judgment was given was styled Hugh Kerr & Co. vs. David Clark et al. A judge was given the firm against Clark several months ago, and the present judgment is in settlement of the account of Hugh Kerr & Co.

The first annual joint sale of thoroughbred yearlings, the property of Fleetwood, Kingston, Balmoun, Logan, Larchmont and Beasmont, stables took place at Lexington yesterday. Forty-seven head brought $19,415, an average of $411 per head. The best sales were a bay colt by Longfellow, dam May Day, to Breck Viley, Midway, Ky., for $1,500; a bay colt by King Alfonso, dam Kaaska, to W. W. McMillan, of Hamilton, Canada, for $840; a bay colt by Longfellow, dam Carrie Phillips, to Jack Chinn, $1,850, and a bay filly by Longfellow, dam Imp. Eucare, to Jack Chinn, for $1,750.

Dr. George Hollins, a prominent citizen and physician of Good Hope, Logan county, shot and instantly killed Eugene Lyne, colored, at that place Tuesday afternoon noon. The colored man, who was a boy, was in following him about and cursing and abusing him. Finally he followed Hollins, his house and was ordered off the place, but refusing to go and shouting, Hollins drew a pistol and shot him. Lyne's friends are very much aroused, and are for the lack of a leader a riot, if not lynching, would result.

The examining trial of Charles Williams, charged with abduction, came up at Bowling Green Wednesday. Only one witness was examined, the plaintiff, Miss Emma Taylor. She stated that Williams deceived her by a story, telling her he was an old friend of her father's, and carried her into the country, where he made her get out of the buggy and then abused her person. He threatened her if she told on him, and then carried her to Louisville. He made up a story for her to tell in case she was detained by anyone, which was the effect that an uncle and aunt, with whom she lived, mistreated and beat her.

W. H. Edgins, a leading young farmer of Trigg county, was in the city Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Anderson, of Princeton, are visiting the family of Mr. Clarence Anderson.

Mr. J. F. Bell and daughters, Alice and Sallie, of Clarksville, visited relatives in the city this week.

Misses Mattie Chiles and Lizzie Rutherford, of Trenton, have been the guests of Mrs. George W. Graves.

Mrs. Betty Penick and daughter, Miss Bessie, and Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, of Pembroke, were in the city Tuesday.

Miss Lulu Ferguson, who has been on a three-week visit to relatives and friends at Paducah, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Mattie Rowe, of Greenville, Ky., accompanied by her little daughter, Bessie, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Dodd.

Miss Mattie Craven, of Bellevue, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Craven, of this city, returned home Monday evening.

W. H. Edgins and wife and Mrs. Noe Dills, from near Fairview, are spending several days in town as guests of their sister, Mrs. P. A. Cushman.

Mrs. J. K. Kent, accompanied by her children, leaves in a few days for Europe, where she will visit relatives in Germany. They will remain abroad until October.

Dr. G. Goldstein has been requested by a number of persons to make another visit and has consented to be in the city on the first of June and will remain one day.

The members of the Democratic county committee are requested to meet at the court house in Hopkinsville at 8 p. m. on Monday, May 31. Important business will be transacted.

S. G. Beckman, Chairman.

The proposition to compromise the balance of Muhlenberg's debt, which was to be submitted Monday was withdrawn, says the Echo. The reason assigned was the withdrawal of the support of a number of citizens. Their withdrawal was due, we understand, to a fear of subjecting themselves to liability to Judge Brown, of Memphis, for his conditional fee of $25,000.

Rev. Daniel Hanbury, who was well and favorably known by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, departed this life last Monday after a long illness. Rev. Hanbury was an acceptable minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, being greatly beloved by those for whom he ministered. He was a devoted husband and a devoted father. He was a brother of Messrs. Thomas and John Hanbury, of Christian county, and of Mr. Joseph Hanbury, of this county, besides being the father of several children who will deeply mourn his loss.

The members of the Democratic county committee are requested to meet at the court house in Hopkinsville at 8 p. m. on Monday, May 31. Important business will be transacted.

S. G. Beckman, Chairman.

The proposition to compromise the balance of Muhlenberg's debt, which was to be submitted Monday was withdrawn, says the Echo. The reason assigned was the withdrawal of the support of a number of citizens. Their withdrawal was due, we understand, to a fear of subjecting themselves to liability to Judge Brown, of Memphis, for his conditional fee of $25,000.

Lee Johnson, the child of genius and misfortune, met with another painful accident Sunday night. While driving on the Fairview pike his horse took fright and ran away overturning Mr. Johnson and dislocating his right shoulder.

A fine mule belonging to Mr. Carter was killed by the early south wind on Monday morning, about a point about two miles north of this city. The railroad company has already paid $400 for stock killed within fifty feet of this same spot.

At the spring meeting in Louisville an attempt will be made to lower the record for a mile made over the track there by Ten Broeck. This attempt will be made by Mr. T. B. Harper, who owned Ten Broeck, and the thoroughbred selected is the mare Valuable.

The jury in the case of Withers & Adams against the L. & N. Railroad Company returned a verdict of $40 in favor of Withers and $20 in favor of Adams. The plaintiffs were damaged to this extent by the unnecessary delay of cattle shipped by their last September.

The Western Union Telegraph company has compromised the suit brought against them by the Eugene Mills by paying the full amount asked for damages. The suit was for an action against the company for the alleged carelessness of the agents by which the plaintiff was damaged in the amount sued for.

Mr. Jno. Fruit, of north Christian, a brother of Capt. Sam. Fruit, died at his home Friday. He left a wife and six children. He was a man well thought of by those who knew him for his many good qualities. The sympathy of the people is given his family for their great loss.

Mr. Jas. Breathitt, Jr., of this city, has received his commission as railway mail clerk and his run will be between Evansville and Providence. He is an industrious and worthy young man and his application was signed by the leading citizens of Hopkinsville regardless of party.

The membership of the Latham Light Guards is steadily increasing and the names of the very best young men of the city are being added to the roster. It is the intention of the boys to organize thoroughly in time for the summer encampment at Crab Orchard Springs. Lieut. Henry H. Clark is notified by the Adjutant General that new uniforms and new equipments throughout will be forwarded as soon as the organization is perfected.

We are informed that Col. T. J. Morrow has a pair of dogs which can catch more fish in a given time than Mat Starling and Gene Wood. Col. A. H. Clark is authority for the statement that they recently caught 314 pounds of suckers in the river near Col. Morrow's residence. They are the best fish in the charge and he was willing to admit. Some very sensational developments are expected when the case is called.

Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.

Quite a number of gentlemen from this city are attending the Nashville races.

For Sale—An elegant Upright Rosewood Piano—cheap. Apply at this office.

There were seventy-two arrests made by the police force during the month of April.

Prof. C. P. Dietrich has purchased the handsome residence of F. Dryer on Walnut street opposite Mr. Eugene Wood and will remove his family thither in a short time.

One of the members of the Louisville Legion, G. W. Farrow, was en route to New York, had his arm badly bruised by striking a bridge in an attempt to catch his cap which blew out of the car window that amputation was necessary.

Rev. H. A. McDonald desires us to say that the Christian church at Crofton will not be dedicated until May 3d. The New Era is informed by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Gant, that the dedication would take place on next Sunday.

John Savage has secured a position in the service of the Express company and is now running between Lexington and Nashville. He is an energetic and faithful young man and will make the company a good servant.

The prospects for the success of the spring meeting are constantly growing and the secretary and officers of the association are confidently expecting a large attendance. The horses will begin to arrive about the middle of next month.

N. Harrell, residing near Lafayette, had a black mare-mule, bridle and saddle stolen from his stable several nights since, and has offered a reward of $25 for the return of the animal. The state also offers a reward of $50 for the arrest of an horse thief.

The theatrical season closed on Saturday night with the performance of Gorton's minstrel. The management has already opened the books for the season of 89-90 and has booked several very strong attractions including popular Baker and other Hopkinsville favorites.

The tobacco crop will be a failure in Bourbon and Robertson counties, says a correspondent. Owing to the drought the plants have all withered. Planters who expected to have plants enough to set out fifty acres can not set one acre, and are planting their tobacco land in corn.

The Republican county committee will meet in this city on next Monday, May 6th, at one o'clock, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent Christian county in the convention called at Louisville to nominate a candidate for state treasurer.

Messrs. Bonte and Wright have just completed for Cooper & Callahan, the enterprising young business men, one of the finest double vehicles that has ever been offered to the public in the lively business city of Hopkinsville. It will be built at a great expense, but will not doubt be a paying investment.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Kraver & Harris in this issue. They carry the largest stock of whiskey, wines and liquors, of any house in this section of the state. And all orders will receive prompt attention. You can rely on receiving just what you order, give them a trial.

Clarksville Democrat: Austin Peay, who has been gathering statistics for the Kentucky agricultural department, takes the acreage of twelve farmers in this county. He reports the average of 85 per cent, an increase in corn of 35 per cent, and an increase in oats of 150 per cent.

Dr. Chas. W. Taylor, of Louisville, has created something of a sensation in Masonic circles by resigning his position as commander in chief of Veritas Consistory of the Central Masonry. This is taken by the regular Masons to mean the downfall of that body in Kentucky. Its organization has been the occasion of much discussion.

A very strong case has been made out against Chas. Williams arrested in this city a few days ago on the charge of abducting a young lady of Bowling Green. According to the young lady's statement he is a lecher and a thief, and she is now in the hands of the law. He is now in the hands of the law. He is now in the hands of the law.

Two young colored men from the Pembroke vicinity walked into the clerk's office this morning and one of them purchased a license to marry. When the necessary papers had been drawn up, signed and delivered to the party there was a whispered consultation between the two, then the other walked up to the clerk's desk and informed Major Breathitt that he wanted a "pair of license."

The major replied that he was just out, but a friend had just bought the last "pair" in the house but that a new supply would arrive Monday. The poor fellow turned off with a countenance the picture of sorrow thinking that his matrimonial hopes were blasted. He was called back, however, and a "pair" was issued to him and he went on his way rejoicing.

The annual fry of the fishing club has been postponed. Those who left this Monday evening to spend the night with friends in the country in order to get an early start Tuesday morning to the fishing grounds were somewhat disappointed on awakening to find the rain pouring in torrents. It stopped raining about 9:30, and a few raindrops followed. The party was out, one party to Stegar's mill, the other to Sinking Fork. The ladies, of course, were compelled to remain indoors. What the Stegar's mill party caught, has not been learned, but it is believed that a few colds will about cover the catch. The other party consisting of eight persons, caught about fifteen pounds of fish, three trout, two snakes, a terrapin, three coon and five cats. Six men got wet and the other two got muddy. The postponed fry will be held in about two weeks.

There was a panic on the streets Saturday morning occasioned by a runaway. The boy belonging to Will Withers became frightened and, breaking away from his father, ran down the street, dragging a buggy behind him. Just opposite Galbreath's he slipped and fell the buggy, but recovering himself before he could be caught, continued his wild career up Main street.

The buggy struck Mr. Clarence Anderson's carriage with terrible force but fortunately no damage was done to his vehicle. The runaway then struck the frightened animal turned and dashed toward the river, overturning the buggy and bending the river axle. Just below the rock spring he went headlong into the river and climbed up the opposite bank where he was caught by a bold colored man who jumped into the water and waded to him. Strange to say damage was done to the buggy except the bending of the axle. The fright was occasioned, by water thrown upon him from the street, the driver of which was careless.

A very interesting revival has been in progress at the Baptist church near Cadiz during the past two weeks. Many additions have been made to the society and a report of Rev. G. H. Simmons, of Louisville, the baptizing will take place Saturday afternoon in the pool near the river. Mr. Simmons will preach his farewell sermon and return to Louisville.

Frank Nicholson, who disappeared from Evansville two days ago, has been accounted for. His body was found in the river some distance below there last Saturday.

The Madisonville Hustler says that the beer business has opened up at that town, sixteen kegs being put out the train Saturday night.

Madisonville is a little pond of her literary talent. She has two authors, Emma, Mrs. J. T. Ruby and Miss Emma Prewitt.

Miss Lulu Hart is recovering from a severe relapse of typhoid fever.

Go to A. G. Bush for boots and shoes and save money.

Quite a number of gentlemen from this city are attending the Nashville races.

For Sale—An elegant Upright Rosewood Piano—cheap. Apply at this office.

There were seventy-two arrests made by the police force during the month of April.

PREFERRED LOCALS.

National Fertilizers.

I have just filled my hand of National Fertilizers for Tobacco, Wheat, Corn, Oats, Meadows and Vegetables. I have no traveling agents to pay, but I have the best fertilizer in the world. With J. H. Anderson & Co., Main St. Glass Corner.

D. A. TARDY.

J. W. SLAUGHTER. J. W. McCULLOCH.

SLAUGHTER & McCULLOCH.

Wholesale LIQUOR DEALERS.

No. 209 Main street, at Railroad, OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY.

2, 4, 8, 10 and 15 year old Whiskies, Wines, Cordials, etc.

Prices Furnished on Application.

Goods always shipped by return train on day orders.

SLAUGHTER & McCULLOCH, Owensboro, Kentucky.

To The Public.

We call attention of persons contemplating buying a Buggy or Carriage to our large stock of

OWN MAKE.

We have of Eastern work, and also a fine assortment of select from, and all work guaranteed, and the guarantees are made good when necessary. No misrepresentation. Our prices are as low as same quality can be bought anywhere. We have also a fine line of buggy harness, pronounced by good judges the best ever offered for the money.

Repairing and Reparing!

done in workmanlike manner and at reduced prices. Try us and see how we fit.

BONTE & WRIGHT.

Factory 8th st, near Rocksw.

He Denies It.

C. E. West is not going to quit the Sewing Machine business. It is all a malicious report. I am a permanent fixture here. When other machines are gone "where the woodbine grows" I will be with you to fix your sewing machine or give you a bargain in a new one. Sixteen years experience and twelve cities visited have not made me appear like a quitter. You talk, eh? Goodbye.

A DOLLAR MADE.

TWO DOLLARS SAVED.

Honest John Moayon.

Can and will save you money by saving you. Do you know that Boots and Shoes for less money than any other house in town.

W. V. W. Because he buys for Cash.

Pays no RENT, and if you call at his Store you will be convinced.

JOHN MOAYON, The Farmers' Friend.

Farmers Desiring INFORMATION.

On the use of any kind of fertilizer will find it to their interest to call on V. M. Metcalfe, at his office near the depot.

WANTED.

To buy 50,000 POUNDS OF WOOL. I will pay the highest market price. Don't fail to see me before selling wlm.

John Moayon.

METCALFE'S FERTILIZERS.

Are going like hot cakes. Call and get the latest and best corn or tobacco. Prices reasonable.

W. V. W.

FOR SALE.

I wish to move to another city and will sell my dwelling and business house, dwl. Ap. 30.

MAX MEYER'S.

Handsomeness.

Chamber suits of the very latest design, elegant, masculine and cherry wood, just received at Thompson & McClellan.

Jersey Pig—Pure.

From Registered Stock, ready to deliver at May. Price $6.00. Also settings from Turkey. $2.00.

R. H. DUDLEY, Jr., Milledale, Ky.

FOR SALE CHEAP.

Two No. one bay horses, good size, color and condition. One very gentle, and the other a little more spirited. Both are well broken, and will sell cheap. Apply to Metcalfe & Co.

IF YOU VISIT.

SHYER'S CORNER to-day you will be in clover.

NEW DESIGNS.

In parlor suits just opened at Thompson & McClellan. They are beautiful, and nothing like them have ever been offered on this market.

DON'T FAIL.

To take a look at the beautiful baby carriages at Thompson & McClellan. They have the finest selection in the city, and they are marked to sell at rock bottom figures.

Elitable
Colony less the nation, er and leams-waste

nd.
rning
a with a c re-sired gr omthe be-that I owed toco I
Vt.
Vt.
d!

Virginia
of NAL.
before you
We also
ES. day and is for es, gov-and to

LE, KY.
P
S

D
PA.
0000 full ll.

n

Ind
SE

work in the
of the roof men can can can

S.

SH

S.

